

ONSITE CEREMONY SOUND PLANNING WORKSHEET

PRE-SERVICE:

- Will you be having any live musicians or soloists? Yes No
- Will they be performing before and after the service or would you like us to play background music? Musicians We will provide this service

SONG DURING SEATING OF PARENTS AND GRANDPARENTS:

- Note: Usually, Grandparents, the Parents of the Groom and Mother of the Bride (in that order) are escorted up the aisle and seated in their special places. The mother's would then go light the candles if you were having a candle unity ceremony.

WEDDING PARTY PROCESSIONAL SONG:

- Note: The Processional is usually in this order: First, Junior Bridesmaids; Second, Bridesmaids (sometimes escorted by Groomsmen); Third, Maid/Matron of Honor (sometimes escorted by the Best Man); Fourth, Ring Bearer followed by Flower Girl
- Will groomsmen be escorting bridesmaids or standing at front? Escorting Ready at the front
- Will there be ring bearers and flower girls? Yes No

BRIDE'S PROCESSIONAL SONG:

READERS FOR PASSAGES, POEMS, OR MESSAGES?

Yes Names: _____ No

CANDLE/ SAND/ UNITY CEREMONY? Yes No

UNITY SONG: (Normally, if you have one, this is where a soloist would perform.)

- Notes: Extinguishing the two tapers after lighting the Unity Candle can demonstrate the devotion to the commitment just made. Leaving the two tapers lit demonstrates that although a new relationship has been formed, neither partner loses their individuality.
- After the unity ceremony, the Bride and Groom present a single rose each to the Mother of the Bride and Mother of the Groom, along with a kiss and a hug, as a sign of their love for them. Grandparents and/or other family members may also be included. This is usually a surprise for the recipients.

RECESSIONAL SONG:

Note: The Ceremony is over, and it is time to march back down the aisle. The Recessional usually occurs in the reverse order of the Processional, but with the Groomsmen and Junior Groomsmen usually accompanying the Bridesmaids and Junior Bridesmaids.
